

“Charlie Crist’s ridiculous statements attacking Governor Scott over discharges into Lake Okeechobee show that he will truly say ANYTHING to get elected. Governor Scott has been a leader in funding water restoration projects in the area, especially when the federal government has continually failed to live up to their commitments. It’s appalling to see this level of willful ignorance and desperation from a former sitting Governor of Florida.”

- Matt Moon, Communications Director, Rick Scott for Florida