Senator Jason Pizzo, Democratic Senate Leader-Designate, Announces Campus Conversations College Tour

Tallahassee, Fla. – On Tuesday, October 17, 2023, Florida State Senator Jason Pizzo (D-37, Sunny Isles Beach), will kick off the first leg of his “Campus Conversations” College and University Tour to engage college students in the democratic process. Visiting 12 colleges and universities throughout Florida, including the University of Central Florida, University of Florida and University of South Florida, he will begin the tour in Tallahassee this week with town halls open to students and faculty at Florida State University on Tuesday, the 17th at 6:00 pm, followed by Florida A&M University on Wednesday, October 18th at 5:30 pm. Later in the week, he’ll be hosting students at the Tallahassee eatery, DP Dough, and at the FSU vs. Duke football game.

From his years of fighting for justice for youth gun violence victims, to his successful efforts in securing the authority for Florida high schools to provide naloxone, the incoming leader of the Florida Senate Democrats and Vice-Chair of the Florida Senate Resiliency Committee is also the father of twin 17-year-old boys - Jason recognizes the value, the need, and the urgency, to engage and collaborate with our emerging generation of leaders.
